REPORT
OF THE
SELECTMEN AND OTHER OFFICERS
OF
THE TOWN OF RUTLAND,
1865.

RUTLAND:
JOHN CAIN, STEAM JOB PRINTER.
1865.

REPORT OF SELECTMEN.

To the Town of Rutland:

FELLOW-CITIZENS: The labors of your selectmen for the year now drawing to a close have been very great. The responsibilities resting upon us, and the difficulties we have met with, have been far greater than any former board ever experienced. To state all of our doings here in detail would be to extend this report to an unwarrantable length; we therefore confine ourselves to a plain statement of facts and figures:

The ordinary expenses of the town have been large; but not more so than the actual wants of the town required.—The old practice of opposing each and every public improvement has been done away with by general consent. No one will now contend that the Grove Street road, the Moulthrop and Kelley roads, and the new road to the quarries at West Rutland, are not great improvements; yet all these roads were laid by a committee appointed by the Courts, and opposed by the town. An alteration of the road near the lime kiln at the quarries has been solicited. We offered to pay the land damages, if the Marble Company would build the road. This offer has not yet been accepted. The Spring street, Church street and Putnam street roads have been built, besides one in Nebraska. The Wells' and Deland bridges broke down in September, and new and durable structures have been erected at a cost of $965 40. The Clement road has been built, at a cost of $461—$200 of which was for land damage to Mr. Ripley.

The Ripley bridge should have a stone pier to insure its safety. We know of no extraordinary expense for the town to incur the coming year.

MILITARY MATTERS.

The number of men we have enlisted, with the sum paid each, will be found within. The high bounties paid last summer, were made so by enlisting officers of other towns coming here and bidding over each other, and by the scarcity of men during the most busy season of the year.

In filling the quota under the last call, you will observe that we have paid less for three years' men than we did last summer for one year. Most of our men for this call have been navy men, and for three years.

A large number of men have applied to enlist in the army, who seemed to us to be bounty-jumpers and deserters. We could not so squander your money, and prove false to the trusts reposed in us by the government, as to take such men, although they would pass to our credit as soon as mustered. The men who received the highest bounty, last summer, for one year, are men from this county, and are men to be relied upon.

On the 1st of January last, we had 210 one years' men to our credit. We supposed this credit would be allowed on the present call for 300,000 men; but as our quota has never been over 86 on former calls for 300,000, and the enrollment no larger, we cannot see where the credits are given, unless it be in the reduction of the quota from 86—as first assigned—to 54—the last assignment—thus giving us credit for only 32 men, and calling these 32 three years' men. There still remains 118 one year's men to be accounted for.

On the petition of a large number of soldiers of the 7th regiment, a town meeting was called on the 31st of September last, and a vote taken to pay $500 each to re-enlisted men of that regiment who applied on the July call for 500,000. Whether that vote was legal or not, we leave for legal gentlemen to decide. We have inserted an article in the warning covering the whole ground. The number of re-enlisted men who have been credited to Rutland is about one hundred. If any bounty is given, it should be given to all alike. Should you deem it best to pay these re-enlisted men a bounty, we would respectfully suggest that it be paid in installments, according to the time they may serve in the army.

We are sorry to inform you that we have men among us so lost to all sense of patriotism and manliness, as to buy up the alleged claims of the soldier for his bounty, at from 30 to 60 cents on the dollar, made payable when the soldier was paid by the town, and then present the full amount of the claim to us for acceptance, which, of course, we could not, nor would not do.

Should you vote to pay a bounty to these re-enlisted men, we trust you will instruct our successors to pay the same to the soldier's family, if he has one, or to the soldier himself, so that he may have the full benefit of it; or pay it in such other manner as they shall deem best.

In April last, the Governor called for one man from each town, to fill the 17th regiment. We enlisted one for three years for $100, and sent him to Burlington.

The whole amount of bounties paid by the town since the war began, is $161,801 58.

In closing our report, we take the liberty to tender our thanks to the officers of the two banks for the material aid they have kindly furnished us, without which we could not have filled our quota; also, to Capt. C. R. Crane, Provost Marshal, for the gentlemanly assistance he has at all times rendered us.

Physician's services.....	60 00

Whole amount of expenses for the support of the poor for the present year, exclusive of the overseer's salary, is$2036 31

To meet the above expenses, I have drawn orders on your Treasury to the amount of...$1427 38

Cash received from farm, and other sources .. 609 43

You have herewith a list of person who have received assistance, outside the poor house, and the amount annexed to each man's name; and the cause for rendering such aid. The expenses of maintaining the poor outside the poor house are somewhat larger than last year, and also at the house. There has been admitted to the poor house, during the year, forty-three different persons; the average number through the year, at the house, is thirty. There are now in the poor house twenty-two—twelve adults and ten children. There has been only one death, but a larger amount of sickness than last year. There has been five deaths among the poor, who have received aid from the town, outside the poor house.

If we take into consideration the increased price of provisions, together with the extra cost of clothing, it will be seen, that with about the same number of poor at the house this year as last, and about the same number outside, the cost of supporting the one, and helping the other, must be somewhat more.

The number of persons and families helped, outside the poor house, are fifty.

You will, herewith, find a statement of the product of the farm; also, an inventory of the stock, provisions, furniture, &c.
